Write a story about a trip you went on when there was a storm. You can follow this plan:

- where you went and who you were with
- the storm
- what happened in the end
Write a letter about your problem to Problems-over, the problem-solving page of a magazine. You can follow this plan:

* say what your problem is
* say how you feel about it
* ask for help

First, think about your problem. What is it? Here are some ideas:

* you don’t get any pocket money
* your parents won’t let you go to parties
* you have to look after your younger brother or sister * you think one of your classmates stole your phone

(The pictures show some other ideas.)
Write an email to your e-friend, Chris, describing your new friend. Say:

- who your new friend is
- where you met
- what you do together
- why you like him/her

My Favourite Animal

Write an article about your favourite animal. The animal can be a cat, a helper animal like a dog or a pony, or a wild animal. Say:

- what the animal is
- what it looks like
- what it can do
- why you like it

Put a picture of the animal here.
Write a review of a film that you really like. Follow this plan:

- the name of the film
- what type of film it is (adventure, sci-fi, etc)
- the main characters
- the plot (what happens)
- why you like the film
