

Mr and Mrs Brown live in a small house in the forest. They're very nice, but they're very poor. Their house is next to Mrs Black's big house. She's very rich, but she isn't nice at all.

Mrs Black's garden is full of tomatoes, potatoes, apple trees and pear trees. There's a big, high tower in her garden.

One day, Mr Brown hasn't got any food.

We're very hungry today! These tomatoes are lovely. These apples are great! I've got a lot of them in my sack!

But then...

Stop! Thief!
You are a bad man!
Don't steal from me.
