

Town Mouse & Country Mouse

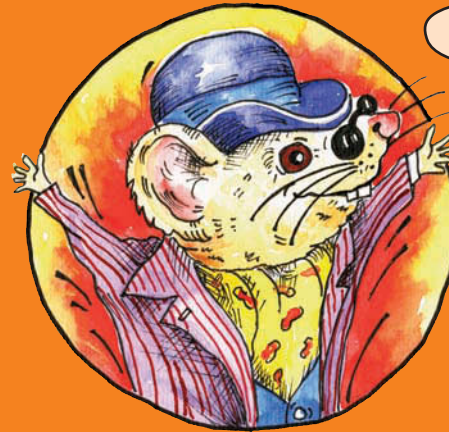

This is Big Ben.
He's a town mouse.
He likes the town.
He likes the cars,
the streets, the children.

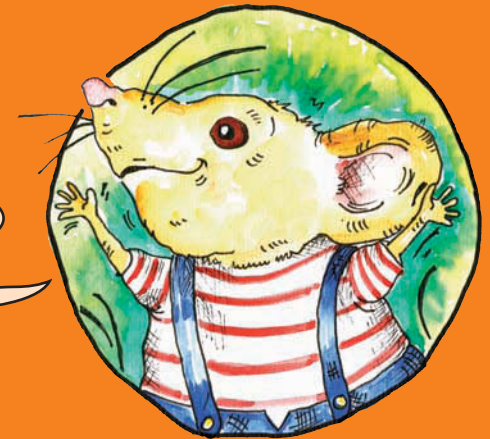

This is Little Ben.
He's a country mouse.
He likes the country.
He likes the trees,
the flowers, the animals.

Big Ben and Little Ben are cousins.
Right now, Big Ben is going to Little Ben's house in the country.

Hello, Little Ben!

Hello, Big Ben!
It's good to see you!

Town Mouse & Country Mouse

Are you hungry, Big Ben?

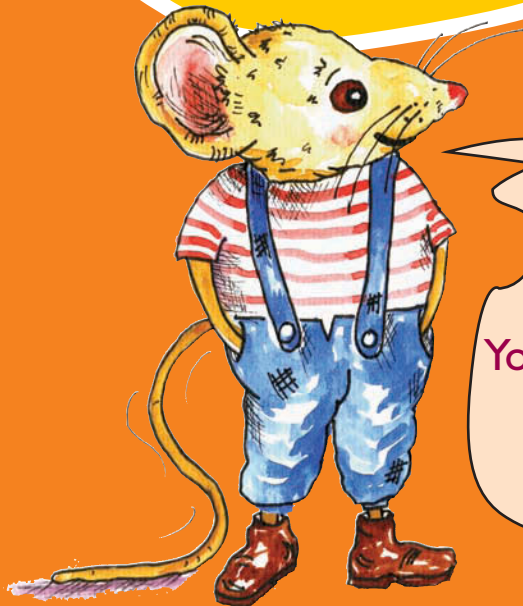

Yes, I am.
I'm very hungry!

Well, here's some cheese,
an apple and some milk
from my cow.

What?!
I don't like apples.
I like pizza
and fries!

I'm sorry, Big Ben.
You're in the country now.
There isn't any pizza.
There aren't any fries.

Oh! I don't like
the country!
Well, I'm tired now.
Where's the bedroom?

Town Mouse & Country Mouse

Here it is.
You can sleep
in this bed.

I can't sleep in this bed! It isn't a good bed!

In the morning...

I'm sorry, Little Ben.
I don't like the country.
Come with me to the town.
We can have fun there.

OK!
Let's go!

Town Mouse & Country Mouse

Now Big Ben and Little Ben are in Big Ben's town.

Oh no! I can't stay here!
I don't like the town.
There are a lot of cars.
There are a lot children.
Sorry, Big Ben! I'm going back to the country. Goodbye!
